FRANK ROSS,

Plaintiff,

vs.

TWENTIETH CENTURY-FOX FILM CORPO-RATION, et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER STAYING PROCEEDINGS

This matter came regularly on to be heard upon the motion of the defendant Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation to stay proceedings in said action, plaintiff appearing by Pacht, Ross, Warne & Bernhard and Stuart L. Kadison, Esq., his attorneys, and said defendant appearing by Musick, Peeler & Garrett and Harold F. Collins, its attorneys, and the Court having considered said motion and being satisfied that the issues involved in said suit are referable to arbitration under an agreement in writing dated August 11, 1952, and having directed that a Minute Order be entered granting said motion, and good cause appearing therefor,

Now, Therefore, It Is Ordered that the trial of said action and further proceedings herein shall be stayed until arbitration has been had in accordance with the terms of said agreement of August 11, 1952, copy of which is attached to plaintiff's Complaint as Exhibit "A" thereof, and the Clerk is directed that this order and judgment be duly entered in the manner required by the rules of this court.

Dated this 5th day of April, 1956.

/s/ THURMOND CLARKE,
Judge.

STIPULATION RE SUPPLEMENTAL RECORD AND CONSOLIDATION OF RECORD ON APPEAL AND FOR SUBMISSION OF CAUSE

Plaintiff, Frank Ross, and the defendant Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation, through their respective attorneys stipulate and agree relative to the following facts and circumstances:

A. Heretofore and prior to the 5th day of April, 1956, certain proceedings were taken and had in the above-entitled cause, resulting in the entry of a minute order under date of November 29, 1955, by the order and direction of Honorable Thurmond Clarke, District Judge, which said order granted the motion of said defendant theretofore made to stay proceedings in said action. Thereafter plaintiff served notice of appeal from said order to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, and prepared and filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court of Appeal Appellant's Statement of Points and Designation of Record. That a record of all of said proceedings is specifically set forth in the printed Transcript of Record, pages 1 to 70, inclusive thereof, heretofore prepared and filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court in the appeal so taken and which is there pending, entitled "Frank Ross, Appellant, vs. Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation, a Corporation, Appellee," No. 14999, Records and Files of said Court.

B. Thereafter Appellant served and filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court of Appeal Appellant's opening brief and thereafter Appellee served and filed its Appellee's brief, and Appellant represents that he will cause to be filed Appellant's reply brief within time provided by the rules of said Court.

C. Thereafter, and under date of April 5, 1956, a written order staying proceedings in said cause was signed by the Honorable Thurmond Clarke, District Judge, which order has been entered, docketed and filed at the direction of said Court by the Clerk thereof, on the 11th day of April, 1956.

D. Thereafter and on the 17th day of April, 1956, plaintiff filed his Notice of Appeal to the said United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit from said formal order so made and entered.

The parties hereto stipulate and agree as follows:

1) That a supplemental transcript of record may be made and filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court of Appeal in form as directed by the Clerk thereof, which shall contain and set forth the said order staying proceedings made and entered as herein set forth, the notice of appeal therefrom and this stipulation, all under proper certificate of the Clerk of said District Court in accordance with the rules on appeal made and provided, and stipulate and agree further that said Supplemental Transcript of Record may be filed in and be given the same number and style designation as contained and set forth in original Transcript of Record filed therein.

2) That the said appeal as shown from said original Transcript of Record and the appeal as set forth in said Supplemental Transcript of Record may be consolidated, considered and determined by said Court of Appeal upon the said Appellant's opening brief and Respondent's brief, and Appellant's reply brief filed in said appeal proceedings.

Dated: April 18th, 1956.
